May 1-5
2017

Join us for

SEMANA DE LA RAZA —
our weeklong program to celebrate Chicano/Latino culture, build conexiones with our pasado, provide a platform for critical dialogue, and empower our students and community. Attend workshops, concerts, lectures, and more!

All events are FREE and open to the public.

MONDAY  MAY 1

Platica with Chicano Actor, Pepe Serna
2-4pm | HUB 355 | Co-sponsored by Latin American Perspectives

Join us for a platica with legendary Chicano actor Pepe Serna, star of “American Me” and “Scarface,” as he shares his journey in Hollywood and his contributions to La Causa.

TUESDAY  MAY 2

Invocation: An Evening with Ariana Brown
6-8pm | HUB 269 | Co-sponsored by African Student Programs

Come and hear performer Ariana Brown, an Afromexicana poet, Academy of American Poets Prize recipient, and 2014 national collegiate poetry slam champion.

See a full list of events on the other side of this card.
Semana de la Raza/Cinco de Mayo Nooner
12-2pm | Bell Tower | Co-sponsored by ASPB and Raza Assembly
Celebrate with us! Enjoy good food and música in honor of Semana de la Raza and Cinco de Mayo! We’ll have a special performance, food, and cultural vendors.

Murales de mi Tio: Platica with Phil Gonzales
7-8:30pm | HUB 269
Learn about the work and legacy of muralist Chano Gonzales, the artist who created the mural in Chicano Student Programs, from his nephew Phil Gonzales. Chano’s body of work reflected the Chicano/ Latino experience and validated the stories of our gente.

Master Class with Comic Book Creator Javier Hernandez (RSVP Required)
4:30-5:30pm | HUB 260 | Co-sponsored by The Underground Society of Comics at UCR
Create your own comic story! Learn the process of character and story structure using comics as your storytelling platform. To RSVP, call (951) 827-3821 or sign-up at 145 Costo Hall.

EL MUERTO: An Evening with Comic Book Creator Javier Hernandez
7:30-9pm | HUB 355
Don’t miss this lecture and signing by Chicano/Latino comic book creator (El MUERTO), cartoonist, and co-founder of the Latino Comics Expo.

Decolonize Your Diet: Food Demo Workshop (RSVP Required)
1-2:30pm | INTS 1109 | The WELL and R’Pantry
Be a part of this hands-on introduction to decolonizing your diet and reclaiming our ancestral foods. RSVP by calling (951) 827-3821 or sign-up at 145 Costo Hall.

Decolonize Your Diet: Platica & Book Signing with Authors Dr. Luz Calvo and Dr. Catrióna Rueda Esquibel
6-8pm | HUB 260
Reclaim your culture by learning recipes, cooking techniques, and ingredients of our ancestral foods.